Laying out the programme's thematic priorities. Where does your project idea fit? Let's dive into the programme content.

13.45 – 14.00 Observations from Calls 1 and 2

Lessons learned. What have we observed in submitted applications? Where to focus your efforts when building your Call 3 application.

14.00 – 15.30 The red thread (indicators and intervention logic)

Creating a logical flow, from objective to activities. How can you build your application in order to demonstrate to the programme that you can achieve your project objective via the work plan and other application components? Separate workshops per programme priority.

15.30 – 16.00 Coffee

16.00 – 17.00 Telling your story

Let me tell you a story...What do you need to do to effectively communicate your project to the outside world?

[Networking and finger food from 17.00 to 20.00]

17.00 – 17.45 Project idea pitches and poster presentations

Capturing the attention of potential partners and getting feedback on project ideas. Do you have a fantastic project idea or an idea that still needs to be developed? You will be given three minutes to convey the idea and engage possible partners. Presentations will be made on stage and via posters created by potential applicants.

17.45 – 18.30 Official consultations with JS/NCP's

A forum for asking project-specific questions. One-to-one 15-minute consultations with project advisors of the joint secretariat and the national contact points. Sign up for a slot on the day.
