

Welcome to the 4th Green Team newsletter!

Welcome! In this quarterly newsletter you will find the latest updates of our Interreg North Sea project Green Team. It includes the reveal of our newest tool, the Stakeholder Integration Guide, and a call for best practices in public procurement. You'll also get to know Martin from Papenburg, one of the partners. Finally Middelburg shares with you some effective strategies for citizen management. Enjoy the read!

Deliverable in the spotlight: Stakeholder Integration Guide

Last August, we proudly published our newest tool, the Stakeholder Integration Guide (SIG). This tool helps local governments to identify and categorise stakeholders involved in public space projects.

Read more on why and how to use the SIG

---

Call for best practices in climate adaptive procurement

When local authorities start a project to make public spaces climate resilient, they need to convert their plan into public procurement specifications. Yet it is very important that climate adaptive requirements are not lost in translation.

We are looking for inspiring solutions and best practices on how to successfully integrate climate adaptation into design and public procurement procedures.

Please share your experience with us, small or large!

---

Addressing procurement challenges with IFLA EU

To identify key challenges in climate adaptive procurement, we organised a discussion with experts in the field during the General Assembly of IFLA Europe. Learn more about the key insights from this workshop.

Meet the partner: Municipality of Papenburg

Each newsletter, you get to meet one of the 10 partners. This time the Municipality of Papenburg, German Lighthouse of the Green Team project, tells us about their intentions and highlights during the project. Get to know Martin!

---

Effective strategies for citizen engagement revealed

One of the most crucial and complex aspects of climate adaptation is citizen engagement. Our partner Middelburg shares with you their experience with involving citizens meaningfully, especially in historic, vulnerable or underserved areas. Read more about it here.

Exploring the European Week of Regions and Cities

From 13th to 15th of October, the European Week of Regions and Cities took place in Brussels. During these days, more than 200 sessions with over 300 speakers attracted more than 6,000 participants from all over Europe! Discover what we did and learned.

Contact us at:

greenteam@provincieantwerpen.be

Website Green Team

You are receiving this newsletter because you subscribed to it.

manage your settings | Unsubscribe | privacy statement